

Become a Member

Whoever is excited by literature can become a member of the German Schiller Association (DSG) and enjoy numerous benefits.

Upon joining the German Schiller Association, you will become a member of one of the largest literary associations in Germany, the supporting association of the German Literature Archive Marbach. You will take part in great moments of a literary life, you will become familiar with important developments and trends in literature and philosophy and you will be invited to events and introduced to important people in literature and publishing (authors, publishers, critics, etc.) through engaging readings and discussions.

Your benefits

- Free entry to the Schiller National Museum and the Museum of Modern Literature
- Reduced entrance fees for all events
- Discounted stay at the Association's Collegium House
- Invitations to our events

Interested in becoming a member?

An interactive membership application is here.

The current annual subscription for memberships

Individual members: €80 (€50 without yearbook)

Pupils, students, interns/trainees: €30 (€20 without yearbook)

Businesses and public institutions: €200 (including yearbook)

CONTACT